Enbridge Inc.

The primary business activities of Enbridge Inc. (“Enbridge” or the “Corporation”) consist of the transportation and distribution of crude oil and natural gas. Enbridge conducts its business through five operating segments: Liquids Pipelines, Gas Pipelines, Sponsored Investments, Gas Distribution and Services, and International.

Liquids Pipelines includes the operation of Enbridge’s Canadian common carrier pipeline and feeder pipelines that transport crude oil and other liquid hydrocarbons. Enbridge is the primary transporter of Western Canadian crude oil production. The mainline system (the “System”) consists of the Enbridge System (the portion of the System located in Canada) and the Lakehead System (the portion of the System located in the United States), which is owned by Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. (“EEP”) . The Corporation has an equity investment in EEP that is included in Sponsored Investments.

The Athabasca System transports synthetic and heavy crude oil from the Athabasca and Cold Lake regions of Alberta to Hardisty. The Norman Wells System transports crude oil from the Northwest Territories to Zama, Alberta. In addition, Enbridge has interests in various feeder pipeline systems (Frontier, Olympic, Toledo, Mustang and Chicap) and liquid storage facilities (Patoka), which operate in the United States, as well as the Spearhead Pipeline, which began transporting Canadian crude oil from the Lakehead System at Chicago to Cushing in March 2006.

Gas Pipelines consists of proportionately consolidated investments in pipelines that transport natural gas including the United States portion of the Alliance Pipeline, Vector Pipeline and transmission and gathering pipelines in the Gulf of Mexico (the “Enbridge Offshore Pipelines”). Enbridge has joint control over these investments with one or more other owners. Enbridge owns a 50% interest in the United States portion of the Alliance System, a 60% interest in Vector Pipeline and interests ranging from 22% to 100% in the pipelines comprising the Enbridge Offshore Pipelines.

Sponsored Investments consists of the Corporation’s investments in EEP, Enbridge Energy Management, L.L.C. (“EEM”) (collectively, the “Partnership”) and Enbridge Income Fund (“EIF”). The Partnership transports crude oil and other liquid hydrocarbons through common carrier and feeder pipelines and transports, gathers, processes and markets natural gas and natural gas liquids in the United States. EIF is a publicly traded income fund whose primary operations include a 50% interest in the Canadian portion of the Alliance Pipeline and a 100% interest in a crude oil and liquids pipeline and gathering system.

Gas Distribution and Services consists of gas utility operations which serve residential, commercial, industrial and transportation customers, primarily in Central and Eastern Ontario. It also includes natural gas distribution activities in Quebec, New Brunswick and New York State, and the Corporation’s proportionately consolidated investments in CustomerWorks Limited Partnership, a customer care provider serving natural gas distribution companies, and Aux Sable, a natural gas fractionation and extraction business. The Corporation’s commodity marketing businesses are also included in Gas Distribution and Services. These businesses manage the Corporation’s volume commitments on Alliance and Vector Pipelines as well as offering commodity storage, transport, and supply management services.

The Corporation's International business consists of investments in energy delivery businesses, Compañía Logística de Hidrocarburos CLH, S.A. (CLH) in Spain and Oleoducto Central, S.A. (OCENSA) in Colombia.

Enbridge was incorporated on April 13, 1970 under the Companies Act of the Northwest Territories and was continued under the Canada Business Corporations Act on December 15, 1987. On October 7, 1998, Enbridge filed articles of amendment changing its name from IPL Energy Inc. to Enbridge Inc., and effective May 10, 1999, the Corporation's common shares were divided on a two-for-one basis. On May 20, 2005, the Articles of Continuance were further amended to divide each issued and outstanding common share on a two-for-one basis. The registered office and principal place of business of the Corporation are at Suite 3000, 425-1st Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3L8.

Dear Sirs/Madames:

Re: Issue of Short Term Promissory Notes

We have acted as counsel to Enbridge Inc. (the “Corporation”) in connection with the proposed issue and sale by the Corporation of short term promissory notes (the “Notes”) having maturity dates not more than 365 days from their respective dates of issue and denominations of not less than $100,000 in lawful money of Canada or the equivalent thereof on the date of purchase in other currencies and more particularly described in the Corporation's information memorandum dated April 2, 2007, of which this opinion forms part (the “Information Memorandum”). The Corporation has limited the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding at any time to $2,000,000,000 and the Notes are not convertible or exchangeable into or accompanied by a right to purchase another security.

Scope of Review

We have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, records of corporate proceedings, certificates of officers of the Corporation and of government officials and such other material as we have considered necessary or appropriate for the purposes of this opinion. In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as certified or conformed copies or facsimiles.

As to various questions of fact material to our opinion which we have not verified independently, we have relied upon certificates of, or letters from, government officials, the Corporation or its officers and the Corporation's auditors. The qualification of any opinion or statement with respect to the existence or absence of facts “of which we are aware” means actual awareness by those of our lawyers involved in the issue by the Corporation of the Notes.

In giving the opinions set forth below with respect to provinces other than Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Québec, we have relied upon opinions of counsel in the provinces of Saskatchewan, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. We believe you, and we, are entitled to rely on such opinions. To the extent that such opinions are based on any assumption or are made subject to any limitation or qualification, this opinion is based on the same assumption and made subject to the same limitation or qualification.

We are solicitors qualified to practise law in the provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Québec. This opinion is limited to the laws of the province of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein, except for (i) the opinion in paragraph 4 which is with respect to the laws of each of the provinces of Canada subject to and rendered, in the case of the opinions referred to in the previous paragraph, in reliance on the opinions of counsel described above, (ii) the opinion expressed in paragraph 5 which is limited to the laws of the Province of Québec and (iii) the opinion in paragraph 6 which is also with respect to the laws of British Columbia, Ontario, Québec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein, in each case as such laws are in force at the date hereof.

Qualifications

With respect to the opinion expressed in paragraph 3, the enforceability of the Notes may be limited by: (a) any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally; (b) the qualification that the granting of equitable remedies such as specific performance and injunction are in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction; (c) the equitable or statutory power of the court having jurisdiction to stay proceedings before it and the execution of judgments; (d) the qualification that the interest rate specified in an interest bearing Note may not be enforceable after a judgment is obtained against the Corporation for the amount owing thereunder; (e) with respect to Notes payable in a currency other than that of Canada, the Currency Act (Canada) which provides that judgment in courts in Canada may be obtained only in Canadian currency and (f) the provisions for the payment of interest under any Note may be unenforceable if "interest" is to be received under the Note at a "criminal rate", in each case within the meaning of section 347 of the Criminal Code (Canada).

For the purposes of the opinion expressed in paragraph 3, "Authorized Officers" means any two officers of the Corporation, one of which must be the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer & Corporate Development or the Vice President, Treasury & Tax.

We have assumed that any "market intermediary" (as such term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario) or the Securities Act (Newfoundland and Labrador), as applicable), which participates in a trade of the Notes in Ontario or Newfoundland and Labrador is registered under the applicable securities legislation of Ontario or Newfoundland and Labrador, as the case may be, in a category permitting it to trade in Notes in Ontario and Newfoundland and Labrador and that any such market intermediary has complied with all such applicable securities laws relating to its registration in connection with the trades of the Notes in Ontario and Newfoundland and Labrador. We have also assumed that any agent acting in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes that is a registered dealer or broker under any applicable securities laws has complied with the relevant provisions of such applicable securities laws and the terms of such registration in connection with such offer and sale and that at the time of any trade in the Notes hereafter referred to no order, ruling, decision or condition of any agent's registration is in effect that restricts any trades in the Notes or that affects any person or company that engages in any such trades, including, without limitation, cease trade orders and conditions of registration directing that any dealer registration exemption does not apply to any person or company.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Corporation is a corporation incorporated and subsisting under the Canada Business Corporations Act and has the corporate power to borrow money and to create, issue and sell the Notes.
2. All necessary corporate action has been taken by the Corporation to authorize the borrowing of money through the sale of the Notes and the creation, issue and sale of the Notes.
3. The Notes, when issued in the form of the specimen copy set forth in the Information Memorandum, and when signed by the manual or facsimile signatures of any two Authorized Officers and, in the case of Notes issued in certificated form only, countersigned by either manual or facsimile signature on behalf of the Corporation, and when delivered by or on behalf of the Corporation for value, will constitute valid and legally binding obligations of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.
4. The Corporation may through duly registered dealers (or, in the case of Prince Edward Island, through registered brokers) or through persons exempt from registration in the applicable province offer and sell the Notes in each province of Canada without making any filing under, or registering with, any governmental or public body or authority pursuant to the securities legislation in each of the provinces of Canada, except for the filing without delay with the Autorité des marchés financiers of the Information Memorandum and any other disclosure document delivered to purchasers of the Notes in Québec, provided that,

- (a) the Notes have a rating at or above one of the following rating categories (each an “Approved Credit Rating”) or a category that replaces one of the following rating categories issued by an approved credit rating organization, as indicated below, or any of their respective successors (each an “Approved Credit Rating Organization”):

Approved Credit Rating Organization	Approved Credit Rating
Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited	R-1 (low)
Fitch Ratings	F1
Moody’s Investors Service, Inc.	P-1
Standard & Poor’s Corporation	A-1 (low)

- (b) no Approved Credit Rating Organization has rated the Notes in a rating category that is not an Approved Credit Rating; and
- (c) there has been no announcement by an Approved Credit Rating Organization of which the Corporation is or reasonably should be aware that the rating of the Notes to which the Approved Credit Rating was given may be down-graded to a rating category that would not be an Approved Credit Rating.
5. The French language text of the Information Memorandum and the specimen forms of the Notes is, in all material respects, complete and proper translations of the respective English language texts thereof.
6. The Notes offered hereby, as of the date hereof, will not be precluded as investments, subject to compliance with the prudent investment standards and general investment provisions and restrictions of the statutes referred to below (and, where applicable, regulations or guidelines thereunder) and, in certain cases, subject to the satisfaction of additional requirements relating to investment or lending policies, procedures or goals and, in certain cases, the filing of such policies, procedures or goals, under the following statutes:

Insurance Companies Act (Canada)
Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (Canada)
Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada)
Financial Institutions Act (British Columbia)
Employment Pension Plans Act (Alberta)
Insurance Act (Alberta)
Loan and Trust Corporations Act (Alberta)
Trustee Act (Alberta)
Alberta Heritage Savings Trust Fund Act (Alberta)
Insurance Act (Ontario)
Pension Benefits Act (Ontario)
an Act respecting insurance (Québec) (in respect of insurers other than guarantee funds)
Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Québec)
an Act respecting trust companies and savings companies (Québec) (for a trust company investing its own funds and deposits it receives and a savings company investing its funds)

Yours very truly,

(signed) “McCarthy Tétrault LLP”
